

Join us for a free workshop event in Doha:

Understanding Behaviour; Key concepts for supporting your staff and students

Your invitation

Please join us for this informative session on Sunday 23rd February to develop your understanding of behaviour as communication and explore how a proactive approach to behaviour support leads to supportive, successful and inclusive learning environments.

During the session (3:30pm – 5:00pm) you will explore key Team Teach concepts in behaviour support that you can apply in your own school or setting.

- ✓ Understanding behaviour as communication – what is driving the behaviour?
- ✓ A personalised and proactive approach – recognising each student as an individual.
- ✓ Effective de-escalation – supporting your students with their behaviour.
- ✓ International best practice for staff and students.
